BOSTON, MASS — Children's Services of Roxbury \(CSR\) is proud to share that its President and CEO Sandra M. McCroom has been named a 2026 Pinnacle Awards honoree by the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce Women's Network. Aptly, as McCroom marks 10 years leading CSR, this award recognizes her achievement in non-profit management. The 2026 Pinnacle Awards honors nine outstanding women professionals in the Commonwealth for achievements in business, government, and management. The awards program serves as the region's most prestigious honor for women in professional roles across industries.

"Receiving this award is thrilling and such an honor," said McCroom. "I am truly humbled by the recognition and to be in the company of such brilliant and impactful women leaders."

Children's Services of Roxbury is one of the largest Black-run nonprofits in Massachusetts, serving 6,500 children and families in Greater Boston and running support programs across the state. Under Sandra's leadership and keen understanding of transformative change, CSR purchased its Roxbury headquarters in 2021. The ensuing renovations will enable expanded programs and services that advance economic mobility and peace of mind for the at-risk youth and families CSR serves, while also generating new jobs for the local economy.

"The cascading impact of Sandra's decade at CSR's helm cannot be denied," said Juliette Kayyem, a Harvard professor, former Assistant Secretary at the Department of Homeland Security, and 2023 Lifetime Achievement Pinnacle Award recipient who nominated McCroom. "Guided by her unique vision and unwavering commitment to Massachusetts' most vulnerable children and families, Sandra has disrupted the cycle of generational trauma and created meaningful progress that has changed the trajectory of countless lives. I am elated to see her receive this award."

"Congratulations to our 2026 Pinnacle honorees. Our region is fortunate to have your outstanding leadership," said James E. Rooney, President and CEO of the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce.
